

Between Sundays: Reflection Questions & Next Steps

July 24, 2016

“God Knows My Pain”

1. Take some time to reflect on Job 1:13-21. Try to imagine how you would take this bombardment of bad news and consider how you would respond.
2. Which challenging or painful time in your life have you most struggled with believing that God really cares?
3. What do you feel is the main reason why you can instinctively reach out for other forms of help/comfort before going to the Lord in prayer, praise or the Word?
4. What do you think is a main reason for Christians struggling to find encouragement or strength in the promises of God?
5. What steps can you take to more instinctively go to your knees in worship during times of crisis?
6. Which promise of God/Scripture do you tend to hold on to most in times of pain? Take some time to share this Scripture with someone else.
